Welcome to Christmas in New York!

"The windows of New York City, all dressed up with ribbons and smiles..." The opening lyrics of Sugarland's "City of Silver Dreams" perfectly capture the essence of the greatest city in the world during the most wonderful time of the year.

We'll explore the festive decorations and energy of the world-renowned Macy's and Herald Square on 34th Street.

Fifth Avenue will greet us with some familiar faces from the big screen.

We'll enjoy shopping, ice skating, a magnificent tree, and of course, more shopping in Bryant Park.

The "North Pole" will provide us with an endless array of holiday souvenirs for every taste.

Life-size ornaments fill the vast plazas of 6th Avenue, bringing the season to life on a grand scale.

We'll take in the Christmas Spectacular at the most famous music hall in the world.

...a short block away from the most famous tree in the world.

St. Patrick's Cathedral on Fifth Avenue welcomes the world, and us, with open arms as we explore this historic church.

We'll take a stroll through the most iconic toy store ever to grace the city, FAO Schwarz.

A horse-drawn carriage ride will provide a beautiful look at a beautiful city.

We'll conclude in the perfectly snow-covered oasis of Central Park.
