

The Wilder Side Of Amsterdam

VISUAL TRAVEL TOURS

Maps Show You Where... We Show You Why!

Table of Contents

Cover

Tour Summary

Introduction

Tips

Chapter 1 - Dam Square & Damrak

Chapter 2 - Warmoesstraat

Chapter 3 - Oudezijds Voorburgwal

Chapter 4 - Oudezijds Achterburgwal

Maps

Author Biography

Publisher

Tour Summary

Take a tour of weird museums, kinky shops and Amsterdam's number one attraction, the, ahem, “coffeeshop.” (See tip below!) Admire the 17th-century canal houses that stand cheek to cheek with peep shows, sex shops and window prostitution. After a stroll in the Red Light District, go for a shopping spree and buy creamy Edam cheese to take home. Or would you prefer tulips and Delftware windmills?

Back to Table of Contents

Introduction

Amsterdam, city of bicycles, canals, tulips, wooden shoes, sex and drugs attracts tens of thousands of visitors every year.

Museums and galleries are as common as sex shops and window prostitution.

Window shop in the Red Light District. Buy erotic DVD's and feel a little naughty.

Roll a joint in one of Amsterdam's coffee shops aka hash bars.

Visit a mini marijuana plantation in a canal house and stock up on seeds.

Learn about cannabis and hemp in the Hash Museum.

Buy kinky souvenirs, creamy Dutch cheese or a delftware windmill.

Amble along leafy canals and watch boats glide past.

Let colourful tulips seduce you in spring,
buy wooden ones in winter.

Walk across humpback bridges festooned with bicycles.

Discover architectural details of 17th-century canal houses, their leaning façades and narrow alleys.

Let's meet at Dam Square.

Back to Table of Contents