

China's Great Wall Tour

VISUAL TRAVEL TOURS

Maps Show You Where... We Show You Why!

Table of Contents

Cover

Tour Summary

Introduction

Tips

Chapter 1 - History of the Great Wall

Chapter 2 - Preserving the Great Wall

Chapter 3 - Badaling Section of the Great Wall

Chapter 4 - Other Great Wall Sites

Chapter 5 - The Wall Ends at Shanhaiguan

Maps

Author Biography

Publisher

Tour Summary

Long known as one of the Seven Wonders of the World, this amazing engineering feat is an awesome sight to behold as it snakes its way across China. It is the world's longest outdoor museum, stretching from Jiayaguan in the west to Shanhaiguan on the eastern seaboard. The Chinese started building the Wall in the 6th century BC to defend themselves against invaders swooping down from the north. Today it is one of the most visited tourist attractions on earth: to walk on the Wall is to walk on history.

Back to Table of Contents

Introduction

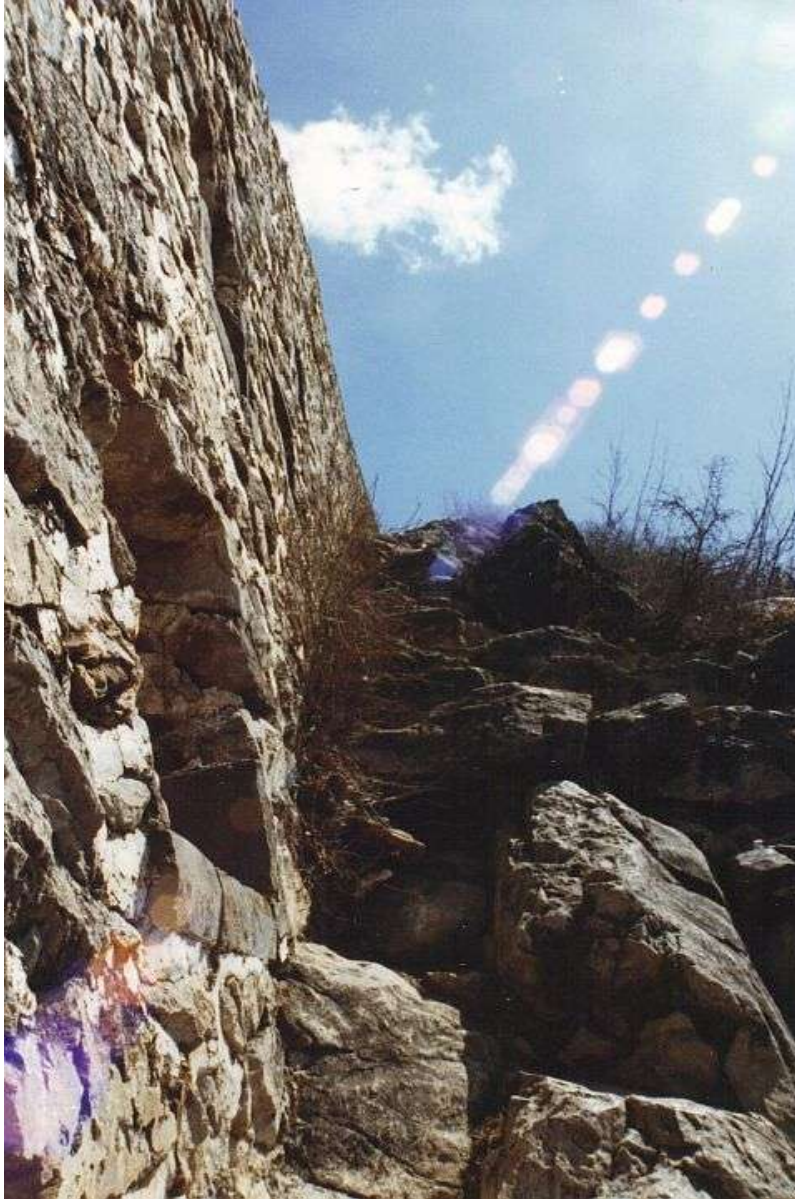

The Great Wall of China is one of the extraordinary wonders of the world.

Man's greatest engineering feat is an awesome sight to behold as it snakes its way across China.

It is the world's longest outdoor museum, stretching from Jiayaguan in the west to Shanhaiguan on the eastern seaboard.

This tour will explore the diverse history of the Great Wall, as well as current efforts to preserve the monument.

We will visit many sections of the wall from Badaling to Shanhaiguan, and learn which are optimal for brief visits, and which are best enjoyed over a period of days.

To walk on the Wall is to walk on history.

China started building the Wall in the 6th century BC to defend itself against invaders swooping down from the north.

Today it's one of the most visited tourist attractions on earth, and it has retained its greatness throughout the many centuries.

Back to Table of Contents