Introduction

Dachau--the name has an ominous sound to it. Understandably so.

You'll hear stories of daily brutality and the constant struggle to survive the harsh conditions of the camp.

You'll see where prisoners had their daily roll call, experience what their crowded barracks looked like, visit the many memorials at the camp, and bear witness to the execution grounds which still house the gas chamber, gallows,

execution ditch,

and over-used crematoria.

In 12 years, 200,000 prisoners were imprisoned here and in other subsidiary camps and over 43,000 of them were killed. This tour will walk you through the horrors of life in Dachau. Find out more on this tour of the Dachau Concentration Camp Memorial Site
