Introduction

“Nahtazu,” is an invented but highly accurate African word for Disney’s Animal Kingdom.

Many parents wonder whether it will be just like the zoos back home.

However, the park is much more than just a zoo.

It is an educational wonderland where kids can go on safari in the African Savannah, meet famous Disney characters in summer camp outfits, and watch a spectacular live-action musical based on Finding Nemo.

Nonetheless, the park is immense, and the jungle pathways can be confusing and overwhelming.

Many visitors spend only a half-day here, focusing on the bigger attractions and completely miss the smaller experiences that create the park's charm.

In this tour, a former Cast Member (Disney-speak for employee) will help you navigate the park like a pro.

You will learn tips and tricks on saving money, maximizing your time, and deciding which experiences are best for your kids.

Along the way, you will learn a bit about the history and development of this one-of-a-kind theme park.
