Introduction

At Disney's Hollywood Studios, you will be immersed in the glamour of an idealized 1920s Hollywood.

“Streetmosphere” characters bring the city to life as you interact with directors, starlets, and even card sharks.

Whether you collect autographed memorabilia at Sid Cahuenga's or dine at a replica of the legendary Brown Derby, you can feel like a star.

Thrill ride junkies should make their way to Sunset Boulevard, home of the Twilight Zone Tower of Terror and Rock 'n' Roller Coaster Starring Aerosmith.

These heart-pounding rides are popular, so be sure to arrive early!

If you prefer shows and gentler excitement, don't miss such favorites as Beauty and the Beast, Voyage of the Little Mermaid, and The Great Movie Ride.

In this tour, a former Cast Member (Disney-speak for employee) will act as your personal guide, helping you navigate the park and choose the attractions that are right for you.

Along the way, you will learn a great deal about the history and development of this unique park, including insider secrets that are not always revealed to the general public.
