

Helena: The Heart of Montana

VISUAL TRAVEL TOURS

Maps Show You Where... We Show You Why!

Table of Contents

Cover

Tour Summary

Helena, Montana

Tips

Chapter 1 - Helena Walking Mall

Chapter 2 - Last Chance Ranch

Chapter 3 - Spokane Bar Sapphire Mine

Chapter 4 - Archie Bray Foundation

Chapter 5 - Tizer Botanic Gardens &

Arboretum

Chapter 6 - The Gates of the Mountains

Maps

Author Biography

Publisher

Tour Summary

This tour includes a stroll down Helena's historic Walking Mall, a stop at Benny's Bistro for some authentic miner's grub, and a visit to the world-famous Archie Bray Foundation for the Ceramic Arts. You'll mine for sapphires, see the renowned Tizer Botanic Gardens and Arboretum, and enjoy a Last Chance Ranch wagon ride to dinner in Montana's biggest tepee!

Back to Table of Contents

Helena, Montana

When most people hear "Montana" they think of big blue skies over expansive mountains. While this is an accurate image, Helena, Montana offers so much more.

Helena has been named “The Best Small Arts Town in America.” One visit will make anyone understand Helena’s strong connection to the art world. This capital city is home to the world-renowned Archie Bray Foundation, several art galleries, and more.

Helena also has many exciting attractions for families and history buffs. Visitors can enjoy a wagon ride and cowboy sing-along, go mining for sapphires, or take a stroll through the famous Tizer Botanical Gardens.

There is something for every type of visitor,
no matter the age or interest.

Back to Table of Contents