Tour Summary

MIAMI BEACH HISTORICAL AREA
WALKING TOUR – About 2½ miles (4 kms)

South Beach is what most people have come to see in Miami. It's bigger and better than all the other beaches and faces the only 20th-century historical district recognized by the United States Government. This tour is perfect if you have an hour or two to enjoy a stroll around the principal sights. Be prepared... the author is extremely knowledgeable and meticulous. However, he makes the whole trip fun and informative, and he won't let you down!

Introduction

Miami Beach's South Beach is what it's all about! I have the perfect tour if you have an hour or two to enjoy a stroll around the principal sights.

South Beach is what most people have come to see in Miami.

A beautiful section of the city filled with stunning Art Deco architecture, bustling sidewalk cafes and sizzling nightlife!

Photographers and movie makers have made the area world famous, with its picturesque historic hotels and lush tropical landscaping.

No matter how good the other beaches are, this is what you came for. It's bigger and better than all the other beaches, and it fronts the only 20th century historical district recognized by the United States Government.

So let's take a stroll to see what it's all about.
