Overview of The Grey Lady

Thirty miles off the southern coast of Cape Cod lies The Grey Lady, better known as Nantucket. Far off the beaten path, its name translates to "The Faraway Isle."

Accessible by ferry or small plane, the island is one of the most historic and visually stunning destinations in the world.

Nantucket's beaches are legendary, and offer over 50 miles of coastline.

You can find calm waters and pounding surf, along with everything in between.

Festivals abound throughout the year, beginning with the Daffodil Festival and ending with the Christmas Stroll.

Our tour will begin on the cobblestone streets surrounding the wharf, where you will find world-class shopping and galleries galore.

It will then take you through an eclectic assortment of restaurants, many featuring the famed Bartlett tomatoes.

Continuing, we'll explore the island on two wheels, illustrating the variety The Grey Lady has to offer.

Whether you bring your bike or rent one, the 35 miles of bike paths all connect you to the main event, the ocean.

Three featured tours will explore different parts of the island and focus on important points along the way.
