The Mission Exterior Walk was authored by docent Lisa Knox Burns (pictured right in the Santa Barbara News-Press). She shares fascinating historical information and she donates a portion of the app proceeds to the Mission to support the work of the Franciscans. The tour is also available as an eBook on Amazon. ★★★★★

"I've visited the Mission numerous times and it's wonderful getting to know the history behind it and what I'm viewing." KT

MISSION EXTERIOR WALK: APP

The Mission Exterior Walk will be yours to keep as an app for your mobile device. Your guide will provide a hands-on demonstration for those unfamiliar with downloading apps. The narration will start as you approach each point of interest.

RIDE THROUGH HISTORY

 With support from Profant Foundation for the Arts, preserving local cultural heritage through exhibits, scholarships, and performances

Enjoy Wine Tasting on the SB Maritime Museum Patio, Sponsored by Deep Sea Wine

On your ride between the Mission and Cabrillo Blvd you will see the County Courthouse--from all four magnificent sides--as well as La Arcada Courtyard, Presidio, El Paseo, and the Historic Theater District including the Granada, Lobero, and Arlington Theaters. Your tour escort, Marie Profant, known for producing cultural events, will describe some of the architectural history and significance. As you proceed along State Street you'll see some of the world-famous galleries, cafes, and Funk Zone. Enjoy wine tasting on an oceanside patio, and then explore on your own; the Maritime Museum, shops, and a short harbor-front stroll with photo-worthy views, and shaded benches... along your way back to port.
